I suppose the most absolutely delicious thing in life is to feel someone needs you.

Oliver Schreiner

He watch'd and wept, he pray'd and felt for all.

Oliver Goldsmith

My home, my love-nest... my shelter from the hurricane.

Elizabeth Bishop

There is something about holding on to things that I find therapeutic.

Edna O'Brien

God could not be everywhere, and therefore he made mothers.

Proverb

The smell of that buttered toast...talked of warm kitchens, of breakfasts on bright frosty mornings, of cosy parlour firesides on winter evenings.

Kenneth Grahame

I am full of mother love; my kindness has always been my curse; a tender heart is the cross I bear.

Don Marquis

In personal life, we should be governed, I think, by the deep inner needs of our nature.

Sigmund Freud

I can't live without that blanket. I can't face life unarmed.

Charles Schultz

Home is where the heart is.

Pliny the Elder
